A well conceived and managed experience for beginner and advanced speakers blended with a cultural awareness and immersion. Nothing to fault in the whole month. Congrats and fond regards to all involved.

Wow, what an enjoyable three weeks Lecce. A language school with patient and enthusiastic teachers, a group leader in Raffaele who couldn't do enough to help and a beautiful town to be immersed into. Great outings around the region, enjoyable cooking lessons, great support and information. Even got connected to a regional walk group for a 10km coastal hike. Highly recommended. Thanks Raf, a great job.

My month in Lecce in September 2017 was an unforgettable experience, one I highly recommend to everyone. The organisation and variety offered in terms of the lessons themselves (I was in the small beginners class with a delightful teacher) , cooking classes, cycling, and the excursions to many different and charming towns was excellent with an opera trip to Bari to see Aida the standout. Our group of learners at different levels was very simpatico and we spent many shared h...

I thoroughly enjoyed my trip to Puglia. Language, food, cooking, music and dancing, food, wine, coffee, food, excursions to remarkable historic places. Oh, and did I mention food? The chance to stay in beautiful Lecce for 25 days meant an immersion in the place in a way not possible on a short stay. Raff did an excellent job providing support whenever needed and his links to a wide range of local people, businesses and services enhanced the whole experience. Being able to stay in the old part of the town was a bonus as were the walking and cycling opportunities. I can highly recommend this tour to anyone with an interest in experiencing a slice of authentic southern Italy.

Lecce is a pretty and unique town, just right for learning the language and settling in to the culture. The course was run by excellent teachers, good class sizes and a great range of learning approaches. The cultural activities were varied and engaging - Gianna's cooking class a particular highlight. Raf our guide was incredibly helpful, not to mention well-connected! Best coffee? No worries. Best gelato? Got it. Local pizzica class at the drop of a hat? We're in.

Do this trip, if at all you can. I plan to - again.

I have just completed the month long course and loved it: wonderful teacher (s) - Valentina Capone was exceptional - we all made great progress and great friends we'll keep forever - side trips were marvellous too. A highly professional and also warm and responsive team at SIS. Miss you already

Catherine Kenneally in my enthusiasm for the SIS forgot to mention indefatigable, unflappable, passionate enthusiast for the Salento region, tour organiser Raff Tardivo, who packed every spare moment with great food, drink, live music and theatre, pizzica classes, insider tips of every kind, 24-hr availability and easy companionship. We loved our share house and miss Quanto Basta cocktails.

My trip with Raff and a small group of friendly people was a terrific and very memorable experience. I went a couple of years ago and hope to go again soon. Not being a fan of the group tour I didn't know what to expect but it was a perfect blend of class time, group time and any amount of 'alone' time. There was an abundance of moments when I was thinking, "This is really special". If you are thinking about learning Italian and want an immersive experience...go!

This is a fabulous trip and well worth doing. Thank you Raff for being such a great host 😊 The Salento region of Italy has to be Italy's best kept secret. Stunning coastline! And amazing places to go and see. The one bad thing - the time went past way too quickly!
