HIGHLIGHTS

WALVIS BAY, NAMIBIA

Today its dramatic setting is inseparable from any impression of this deep-water port on Namibia's desolate, but beautiful "Skeleton Coast." Here the undulating dunes of the Namib Desert meet the sea, and its lagoon is spangled with white pelicans, pink flamingos and other seabirds. Up the coast road is Dune Seven, the highest along Namibia's coast, and a great place to take off your shoes and feel some sand between your toes after your Atlantic crossing.

CASABLANCA, MOROCCO

Casablanca, located on the Atlantic coast, is with 4 million inhabitants Morocco's largest city, and at the same time the largest port in Africa. A successful blend of oriental-style, white cubic dwellings with modern Moroccan quarters gives the city an interesting flair. To help understand Moroccan culture a visit to the Medina, the quaint old Moorish quarter, is a must for all visitors.
