DISCOVERY TO FUEL YOUR WANDERLUST

216 PORTS | 10 MAIDEN CALLS | 92 COUNTRIES | 6 CONTINENTS

From Asia to Africa, New Zealand to New England, and the Black Sea to the British Isles, the World's Most Awarded Luxury Cruise Line sets a global course for enriching discovery in 2023. Newly announced are 36 journeys aboard Crystal Symphony with focused itineraries in Southeast Asia and India; the Middle East, Holy Land and Egypt; and the Mediterranean, Baltic and Australia — including a New Year's Eve celebration in Sydney. Following the recent launch of Crystal Serenity's 32 itineraries, Crystal's 2023 Ocean Collection now features 68 all-inclusive voyages ranging from 6 to 23 nights in destinations both fascinating and fabled, as well as a 140-night World Cruise with multiple options for disembarkation. The lauded ships — Travel + Leisure just named Crystal Cruises the very best for food, service, nightlife and romance in its 2020 World's Best Awards — will both spend extended seasons in the Mediterranean and Europe on diverse itineraries offering tremendous choices. Crystal Symphony will spend the entire year sailing abroad, from places like Vietnam, Cambodia, Yangon and India to destinations including Kuwait, Qatar, the UAE and Egypt. Crystal Serenity will also offer closer-to-home routes from Canada to the Caribbean.

Look to the horizon and plan your future adventures with Crystal...

 WORLD CRUISE SEGMENT

TOP TEN 2023 MUST-SEES

KAMPOT, CAMBODIA*

The pepper plantations of this Cambodian river city give way to the nearby Preah Monivong Bokor National Park, home to forests and waterfalls. It's also a gateway to the capital of Phnom Penh.

CHENNAI, INDIA

Once known as Madras, an overnight features forts and temples and serves as gateway to the UNESCO-listed Monument at Mahabalipuram, home to the famed Shore Temple.

OSLO, NORWAY

Home to a cool opera house and cool museums — dedicated to Vikings, polar explorations and open-air Norsk folklore — and of course, spectacular fjords.

LIMA, PERU

From the Plaza de Armas to the Miraflores seaside, here you'll nibble on Peruvian ceviche, sip a pisco sour and consider a pre- or post- trip to Machu Picchu.

BRISTOL, ENGLAND*

Beyond the busy port lie the UNESCO treasures of Bath, the idyllic village of Cheddar, and a drive through gorgeous countryside to the charming Cotswolds.

SORRENTO, ITALY

Dramatic bluffs, cliffs draped in blooms and lemon-scented air welcome you to the Amalfi Coast. Enjoy two days in this land of idyllic charms, gateway to Pompeii and Naples.

HANSEATIC CITIES

From Warnemünde and Visby to Travemünde and Gdansk, discover the merchant guilds and market towns that dominated Baltic maritime trade in the Late Middle Ages.

SEMARANG, INDONESIA

Gateway to Borobudur, the world's largest Buddhist temple with 2,672 relief panels and 504 statues, and Prambanan, an ancient Hindu temple; both are UNESCO sites.

ZANZIBAR, TANZANIA

Rich in Swahili history, this Tanzanian island also known as Unguja is ringed with beaches and turquoise-blue waters. It is also home to the UNESCO-listed Stone Town.

CAIRO, EGYPT

See ancient pyramids and the Grand Egyptian Museum, set to open in late 2020 as the world's largest archaeological museum housing the most Tutankhamun relics.
