Join Bill Peach Journeys to discover the remarkable Eyre Peninsula. Roughly the size of Switzerland, it is a place of extreme natural beauty, renowned for a multitude of landscapes including its fascinating desert scenery and stunningly dramatic coastline. Be struck by the vivid colours and textures that shape Whyalla, from red-hot coals emerging from the Liberty Steelworks to the sublime turquoise blues of the Spencer Gulf, home to the nearby resident dolphins.

Learn about Whyalla's ship building past when visiting the Whyalla Maritime Museum and the history and challenges faced by early settlers. Making our way to Port Lincoln, we hand-feed kangaroos at Glen Forest, enjoy a unique afternoon tea at Big Swamp Bird Sanctuary and experience a memorable up-close encounter with koalas at Lincoln National Park. Celebrated for its world-famous seafood, we will indulge in the Eyre Peninsula's freshest catches, matched perfectly with local wines of course! Enjoy an oyster cruise at Coffin Bay and a scenic cruise of Boston Bay. Simply magnificent!
